Two Bodies Found Inside Residence

Riverside, CA – On Monday, September 8, 2008 at 8:41 a.m. officers from the Riverside Police Department responded to the 600 block of Central Avenue, after the Department's Communication Center received a call of two deceased bodies located inside an apartment.

Upon the officers arrival they discovered an elderly adult male and elderly female with gunshot wounds. Emergency medical personnel responded and pronounced both dead at the scene. The names are not being released at this time.

Evidences located at the scene indicates that the male adult shot the female, and then took his own life. The male and female resided together at the location.

Homicide Investigators responded and were assisted in their investigation by personnel from the Forensic Unit. There is no additional information available at this time.

Anyone with information pertaining to this incident should contact Detective Rick Wheeler (951) 353-7134, or Detective Rick Cobb (951) 353-7135.
